

Prepare report

Westford Bicentennial committee prepares its first report for the selectmen with recommendations that the town designate the line of march of the Minutemen to Concord to be the "Col. John Robinson Trail," that an outdoor pageant be presented and that the original

Westford Academy building be preserved during the 200th observance starting April 19, 1975. Seated left to right, Theodore W. Engel, Jack Diamond, Allister E. MacDougall, chairman, and Charles S. Kennedy. Standing is Gordon B. Seavey.